1996 - 2016

Las Vegas, NV, February 16, 2016. Founded by its president, Joseph DeMaria, Ph.D., Americana Safety is a nationwide safety consulting, expert witness and compliance software firm.

It was Dr. DeMaria's vision to bring together, under one roof; the most experienced and qualified team of safety and engineering professionals from many practice area specialties. This unique business model continues to give Americana's business and legal clients a broad expert resource when searching for solutions to their concerns.

With steady growth over the years, the company has expanded to more than 25 highly qualified safety and engineering professionals, representing 30 practice areas, with nationwide offices in 15 U.S. states.

What began as one man's vision for the future has turned Americana Safety into a national company, recognized by many as "The Leader in Expert Solutions."
