Americana Safety Wins Professional Services Award

Las Vegas, NV – December 7, 2016. Americana Safety was nominated for and won the 2016 Best of Las Vegas, in the category of Professional Services, by the Las Vegas Small Business Excellence Awards Committee.

According to the Awards Committee:

This award recognizes outstanding small businesses that serve the Las Vegas area. Each year, our selection committee identifies businesses that we believe have achieved outstanding marketing success in their local community and business classification.

Recognition is given to those companies that have shown the ability to use their best practices and implemented programs to generate competitive advantages and long-term value. Companies such as Americana Safety, help make the Las Vegas metropolitan area a vibrant and vital place to live and safely work.

Our mission is to reward the small business community's contributions to the U.S. economy.

Americana Safety was founded in 1996 by Joseph DeMaria, Ph.D., a highly decorated U.S. Air Force veteran and former Air Force Safety Superintendent, with its corporate office located in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Since its inception, it has grown to more than 22 associates with office locations in 15 states. Under a distinctive consulting model, the company has brought together the brightest health & safety and engineering professionals from 30 specialty practice areas to give its legal and business clients a wealth of professional resources from which to choose.

Americana Safety has been fortunate to have been retained by many of the nation's top law firms as expert witnesses and Fortune 500 companies, providing health & safety audits to ensure regulatory compliance for the safety of their employees.
